WHEN WHOLESALE CROCKERY DEALERS FALL OUT ABOUT THEIR IMPORTED eastern stone ware, is it not time dealers throughout the northwest were sitting down on the whole importation business by dealing in our home manufactures. Times are hard and will be harder if we continue to send our money out of the country for no better and not so handsome wares as the OREGON POTTERY CO are now making. They are selling their wares much cheaper than eastern ware, and challenge comparison. Dealers, examine thoroughly into the matter before purchasing, and if we cannot satisfy you, then send your money away. We are now branding our wares and selling them on their merits. Harvard Easily Defeats Yale in the Great Boat Race

YALE MEN GREATLY SURPRISED

General Grant Passes the Afternoon in the Open Air—The Mexican Editors at St. Louis—The Indian Trouble in Colorado

NEW LONDON, Conn., June [illegible]—9 A. M.—A [illegible] just from the boat house says Captain Flanders of the Yale crew required the services of physicians this morning, and that [illegible] substituted. It is also reported [illegible] stopped until afternoon.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June [illegible]—Not in the history of Yale and Harvard aquatics has the interest manifested previous to a race been brought to such a high state of excitement as it was before to-day's contest. Early last night all hotels were overcrowded and lodgings not to be had at any price. Night trains from Boston and New York and boats largely increased the number of visitors, and morning trains from all directions came in crowded. New Haven sent an excursion train of fifteen cars in addition to the regular trains. Betting, which after Columbia's race changed from odds on Yale to even money and then to odds on Harvard, is now about even. An unusually large amount of money [illegible] put up on the result of the race. [illegible] betting was [illegible] even, although [illegible] enthusiastic Harvard men [illegible] their money. At [illegible] the water was in excellent condition, there being [illegible] slight ripple and a very slight south wind.

11 [illegible] A. M.—[illegible] crews have just appeared on the [illegible]. First mile, Harvard [illegible] minutes 40 seconds; Yale [illegible] minutes [illegible] seconds.

11:40 A. M.—Second mile, Harvard [illegible] minutes [illegible] seconds; Yale [illegible] minutes 48 seconds. Third mile, Harvard 18 minutes [illegible] seconds; Yale [illegible] minutes [illegible] seconds. Fourth mile, Harvard [illegible]

[illegible] M.—Harvard won the race over Yale.

MORE PARTICULARS OF THE RACE.

Harvard won the race by [illegible] lengths. [illegible] time was Harvard [illegible] minutes 15½ seconds; Yale [illegible] minutes 40 seconds. Before the race betting was $100 to $60 on Harvard. The feeling in Yale stock was due to Captain Flanders's illness. Although [illegible] it was decided it would be better for him to row than to make a change in the stroke. At [illegible] the breeze freshened considerably and blew almost squarely across the course. This was considered an advantage for Yale. The water had grown quite rough at 10 o'clock.

The Harvard boat came out at 11 o'clock. Yale following [illegible] At [illegible] the word was given and Yale took the water [illegible] lead of about two feet. The Harvard [illegible] settled to her work however, and at fifty yards from the start had drawn up even, and was gaining, to draw ahead. In less than 400 yards Harvard [illegible] showed her stern [illegible] and at the first half mile had a clear lead of over a length, which she kept increasing, Yale still rowing forty and Harvard thirty-five.

THE RACE VIRTUALLY OVER.

At the first mile Harvard led by two lengths, her time being 5 minutes [illegible] seconds.

At the mile and a half Yale spurted and began to decrease the lead a little. Harvard, however, increased her stroke and left them again. At the mile and a half Harvard's time was 8 minutes, 20 seconds and the race was virtually over.

At the two miles Harvard led by three lengths, pulling a fine steady stroke of thirty-six. [illegible] Harvard evidently held her own. Harvard reached the two miles in 10 minutes [illegible] seconds. [illegible] the finish the water was quite rough and the time was slower.

At the three miles Harvard led by ten lengths, passing the flag in 15 minutes [illegible] seconds. Yale's time was [illegible] minutes [illegible] seconds. Both crews spurted at the finish, but Harvard crossed the line fifteen lengths ahead, easy winner. At the finish the Harvard crew appeared fresh and [illegible]

[illegible] DEFEATED [illegible]

[illegible] Many prominent Yale men have freely expressed the opinion that the result of this race will break up the Bob Cook and [illegible] regime. It is now stated that two days ago Cook and Flanders had a serious misunderstanding, and Cook's language was so strong that [illegible] Flanders [illegible] tears [illegible] The record of the Yale and Harvard [illegible] Harvard six, Yale [illegible] best time on record. The captain of the Yale crew declined to talk about the race further than to say it was fairly won.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION.

MT. MCGREGOR, N. Y., June [illegible]—"I slept [illegible] hours continuously last night," said General Grant to his wife when she entered the sick room this morning. "I have had a very good night," he subsequently said. Dr. Shrady said the general dozed at 10:30 o'clock last night [illegible] until about midnight. From that time [illegible] this morning [illegible] and rested well. The thermometer at the cottage marked [illegible] degrees at 10 o'clock this morning, but visitors from Saratoga reported [illegible]

The general's afternoon was chiefly spent on the veranda, where at times he [illegible]. Dr. Shrady left for New York this afternoon. Soon after Dr. Douglas sat down near the general. "This is the best day you have had since you came here, is it not?" he asked of his patient. [illegible] replied the general in a feeble tone. The evening was spent upon the piazza by the [illegible] family, the general sitting beside Dr. Newman, who came up the mountain with his wife this evening. At [illegible] o'clock the general retired. The usual amount of morphine was given, though Dr. Douglas was of the impression that the patient might have slept without it.

THE CHEYENNE INDIAN TROUBLE.

WICHITA, June 26.—The Daily Eagle [illegible] of specials from the Cheyenne Indian agency late this evening, of which a synopsis is transmitted. The situation at the agency looks critical, and officers, employes and traders are liable to be attacked by the infuriated Cheyennes at any moment. The Indians are drilling daily in regular warlike form. The arrival of troops under Sumner only seems to have stirred up the Indians, who put out extra spies in all directions. Without prompt and efficient action on the part of the government a bloody raid and massacre will be the result. A special [illegible] the fort says the Indians are in sufficient force to butcher all the whites, including troops now stationed there. The Indians keep [illegible] night and day, are well armed and have plenty of ammunition. People at the agency do not attempt to reach the Kansas border. Five companies of the Fifth cavalry under Major [illegible] passed through this city by special train to-day and will be within a day's march of Reno by to-morrow morning.

THE G. A. R. REUNION.

PORTLAND, Me., June 26.—The encampment is gradually breaking up. At an early hour this morning many posts started for home, and there was an almost continuous march of bands and veterans towards the depots for several hours. The principal event to-day is a grand excursion to and clam bake at Little Chebeague island. At the clam bake 100 bushels of clams were consumed. Before dinner speeches were made by General Burdett, Corporal Tanner, General Grosvenor, General Keifer, ex-Governor Fairchild, General Logan and others. This evening there was a reception at Falmouth hotel to the California delegation. Previous to the departure for Bar Harbor there were receptions at several places to delegates still remaining in camp.

WALL STREET NOTES.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The Evening Post's financial article says: Pacific Mail dropped 1¾ again this forenoon, on announcement that the company's steamer City of Tokio, which was yesterday reported stranded in the harbor of Yokohama, was really on the rocks outside the harbor and has since gone to pieces. The loss to the company will be at least $1,250,000, or over [illegible] per cent on the capital stock, besides interruption of business. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railway has declared a dividend of 2 per cent for the current quarter.

THE COLORADO INDIAN TROUBLE.

DURANGO, Colo., June 26.—It is currently reported that citizens of this county will demand the delivery to the law of the Indians concerned in the murder of Genthner, when trouble is almost sure to follow. Nothing has been heard here as yet of Agent Stollsteimer's investigation. Unconfirmed reports are afloat that other Indians have been killed. The excitement is subsiding. Mrs. Genthner's condition is regarded as hopeless.

YELLOW FEVER.

READING, Pa., June 26.—Olaf Oleson, of Arendal, Norway, cabin boy from the bark [illegible], from Cienfuegos for Philadelphia, died this afternoon at the hospital from well defined yellow fever. Another case, a sailor from the same bark, is convalescing. The board of health of the town of Lewes adopted stringent resolutions this afternoon concerning communication with hospital employes and all persons connected with the infected vessel.

THE MEXICAN EDITORS AT ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—The excursion party of the Mexican associated press, headed by President Ireneo Paz, arrived here this morning, in two special coaches, over the Missouri Pacific from Kansas City. The special coaches were decorated with the flags of Mexico and the United States. The visitors were escorted to the Southern hotel, where they breakfasted, and were given two hours for [illegible] carriages [illegible] Between [illegible] o'clock the party [illegible] were [illegible]

SALEM NOTES.

Salem will celebrate the coming Fourth.

Mrs A [illegible] Church [illegible] is visiting friends in Salem.

Hon R P Boise [illegible]

Mrs J [illegible] illness.

The Salem [illegible] will [illegible] for a three nights' engagement.

Mrs M [illegible] Chamberlin [illegible] is recovering from a severe attack of sickness.

The [illegible] stand [illegible] nearly completed and will be an ornament to the avenue.

Mrs I H [illegible] of Astoria is visiting her mother Mrs [illegible] of this city.

The brick machine at the penitentiary is turning [illegible] at the rate of 5,000 or 6,000 daily.

One of the hanging lamps in [illegible] broke [illegible] last evening, and prompt [illegible] barely prevented a conflagration.

Mr [illegible] M Patterson and family started yesterday for [illegible] Springs [illegible] They will probably return to Salem in the fall.

Mrs Leonard Stange and Mrs James M [illegible] were thrown from a buggy near the Opera house last evening, fortunately escaping with only a few slight bruises.

O F Morton of Astoria having been appointed [illegible] warden at the penitentiary has filed his bond with C W Fulton, [illegible] Curtis and George Flavel of that city as sureties.

Sheriff Jordan of your city came up last evening to secure the presence of some of the [illegible] on the Fourth of July. There is little probability of their attending.

The birds of the air have whispered as they pass that Jay C Smith and Miss [illegible] Rowland, daughter of Hon and Mrs I L Rowland of this city, will be married here on Thursday, July 2. They will spend the Fourth in Portland and be passengers on the [illegible] outgoing steamer for San Francisco.

In the erection of the new foot bridge across Mill creek on Commercial street, a few days since, the contractor succeeded in driving a ten inch pile with cast steel point completely through one of the sixteen inch water mains which supplies the city with water. The result is that water consumers are temporarily stinted.

The state printer has commenced the delivery of the session laws of 1885, which Secretary Earhart is sending out as fast as received from the hands of the binder. The volume consists of [illegible] pages exclusive of the index, and the price of the same has been fixed at $2 25 each. The printers are now at work on the house journal.

An adjourned meeting of the taxpayers of this school district will be held at the [illegible] to-morrow (Saturday) evening, to decide if possible upon some plan looking to the completion of our new school house. The general desire appears to favor its immediate completion and provide for the issuance of bonds for its payment.

Mrs J M Wagner and daughter, while returning to their home in the country, when about two miles south of the city, on Wednesday last, were stopped by two masked men who demanded money. The ladies were inclined to argue the point, when one of the men drew a shotgun on the mother while the other pulled the girl from the wagon. At this moment a neighbor's team appeared over the brow of the hill and the robbers took to the brush and escaped. Sheriff Minto lost no time in getting on their trail and last evening captured them.

Thomas H [illegible], one of Umatilla county, arrived here last evening in charge of his deranged wife, who has been committed to the asylum. This is the unfortunate woman who, on the [illegible] inst., in a fit of insane frenzy, cut the throat of her six months old child. Mrs [illegible] is but 24 years of age and her mania came on about three weeks ago, made noticeable by severe melancholy and depression of spirits, especially upon religious subjects, laboring under the hallucination that she had committed some unpardonable sin and would never receive forgiveness.

Mr and Mrs Eugene Breyman entertained their friends last evening, the occasion being a reception given in honor of Mr Breyman's sister and niece, Mrs [illegible] and Mrs S [illegible] of Wisconsin, who are visiting in this city. Among those present we noticed Governor and Mrs Z F Moody, Hon and Mrs [illegible], Hon and Mrs [illegible] Hirsch, Hon and Mrs R P Boise, Mr and Mrs Werner Breyman, Mr and Mrs J M [illegible], Mr and Mrs William Brown, Mr and Mrs George H Burnett, Mr and Mrs W N Ladue, Mr and Mrs M N Chapman, Mr and Mrs Frank N Gilbert, Mr and Mrs A T Gilbert, Mr and Mrs S A Clarke, Mr and Mrs D [illegible] Wagner, Mrs C S Woodworth, Mrs Jos Holman, Miss Lydia Ross, Misses Ellen and Nora Chamberlain, Miss [illegible] Gray, Mrs Gertie Townsend, Mrs I N [illegible], Mr and Mrs William England, Mr and Mrs Frank [illegible] Hodgkin and others.

There are bright buds of April and blossoms of May
But they're not half so sweet as the breath of the maid
That with SOZODONT brushes her teeth every day
Till like pearls through her beautiful lips they're displayed.

The O. and C.'s Application for Land Patents Denied.

PROPOSED NEW NAVAL VESSELS

The Supply of West Point Graduates Proves Inadequate—Indian Inspector Newell Removed—Interesting News and Gossip

WASHINGTON, June [illegible]—The commissioner of the general land office has declined to [illegible] the request of the Oregon and California railway company for the issue of patents [illegible] acres [illegible] in the state of Oregon. The grant [illegible] and bills declaring forfeiture of the grant were before congress at the last session. The commissioner says that until the matter of enforcing forfeiture has been determined by congress or the courts it is his opinion that he should take no steps which would place it beyond the power of the legislative branch to protect public rights in the premises.

The commissioner has also replied to a letter from the land officers at Shasta, California, in respect to a similar point in that state for the California and Oregon railway. He states that in February 1885, President Arthur accepted forty miles of [illegible] which had been completed since the expiration of the grant, but ordered that no patents be issued to the company for any lands [illegible] to do so should be given by him. On March [illegible] 1885 [illegible] this [illegible] action was withdrawn [illegible] Secretary Teller [illegible] congress having failed to pass pending bills looking to forfeiture of the grant. Commissioner Sparks says the withdrawal [illegible] president [illegible] express prohibition contained in his former order leaves the matter of all [illegible] selections [illegible] same situation as if no prohibition had been made and withdrawn. The matter of enforcement of forfeiture [illegible] and no positive expression [illegible] having been reached [illegible] official duty [illegible] responsibilities [illegible]

THE PROPOSED NEW NAVAL VESSELS.

WASHINGTON, June [illegible]—A number of plans [illegible] naval vessels provided for at the last session of congress have been received at the navy department. In the circular calling for plans and proposals Secretary Whitney specified that they should be submitted by July 1. The circular called for plans for four vessels. The [illegible] of construction and the bureau of steam engineering of the navy department will submit plans for them, all the former for hulls and the latter for machinery and engines. It is not known that any other source will offer plans for the entire number. Several plans for a single vessel will be submitted by naval officers, and it is expected that plans will be received from ship builders.

Naval Constructor [illegible] of the Brooklyn yard will furnish plans for three vessels. The [illegible] to cost $1,500,000 [illegible] knots per hour [illegible] twenty seven guns and will carry about 500 men and officers. The second [illegible] The third vessel will be [illegible] armament of fourteen guns [illegible] after English cruisers.

[illegible] also [illegible] proposition [illegible] that will float on top of water [illegible] Its sides will be [illegible] Secretary Whitney [illegible] the models of the best cruisers [illegible] American ship builders.

[illegible] ARMAMENT.

WASHINGTON, June [illegible]—The school proposed [illegible] Newport [illegible] in connection with the advance on gun machinery [illegible] We have neither [illegible] guns nor men to handle them if they [illegible] A ball from our guns fired at a modern vessel is like a pea snapped at a window pane. We expect to secure new guns and needed men to handle them.

THE CHIEF OF ORDNANCE.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The four years term for which Commodore Montgomery Sicard was appointed to the office of chief of the bureau of ordnance of the navy department expires the 30th inst. It is understood that he will be reappointed. Several officers were desirous of obtaining the position, but all have withdrawn [illegible] because of a general understanding that Commodore Sicard will be reappointed. During Commodore Sicard's incumbency he has endeavored to improve the ordnance of the navy. For several months the bureau has been manufacturing guns for the new cruisers, and it is expected that these will be completed by the time the vessels are ready for service. The [illegible] six inch gun, being the first completed, was placed on the Dolphin and she is accepted. This gun is pronounced by naval officers to have performed remarkably well. Some go so far as to say that it is the best gun of the kind that has ever been made. The erosion from about 200 shots is so slight that it is scarcely noticeable. Five additional six inch guns and two eight inch guns will be taken to the proving ground about an early date.

[illegible] WEST POINT GRADUATES [illegible]

WASHINGTON, June 26.—It is expected that the graduates at the West Point military academy will be assigned to various regiments when Secretary Endicott returns to Washington next week. There were thirty nine graduates and at the present time there exist fifty four vacancies among officers in the army, of which sixteen are in the cavalry branch, seven in the artillery, twenty nine in the infantry and two in the engineer corps. After the assignment of West Point graduates, non-commissioned officers who have passed examinations by the boards convened by the various departments will be assigned. Twelve men were ordered before the examination boards and it is believed six of them have successfully passed their examinations. This will make a total of forty five men to be assigned, leaving nine vacancies to be filled. The question has been raised whether or not these vacancies will be filled by civilians, or be allowed to remain unfilled until the graduation of a large class of eighty at West Point next year. It is thought that the president will appoint civilians to the positions, and allow congress to provide for the prospective graduates.

THE WORLD'S FAIR'S DEBTS.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Director General Burke had an interview to-day with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild, which resulted in an agreement to deduct from the $335,000 appropriated by congress for the benefit of creditors of the World's Exposition $72,[illegible], being the aggregate amount of claims in dispute, and to pay the sum of [illegible] pro rata to those whose claims correspond with the accounts audited by the board of management. The sum of $72,[illegible] is to be disbursed when the disputed accounts have been adjusted between the claimants and board of management or allowed by some tribunal having jurisdiction.

CUTTING DOWN THE FORCE.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The [illegible] force of senate employes, consisting of three messengers at salaries of $1440 each, two janitors at [illegible] and several laborers at [illegible], will be dropped from the pay rolls of the sergeant at arms at the end of the present month. These men are nearly all republicans. At the same time [illegible] assistant door keepers of the senate at $1800, two messengers at $1440 each, and [illegible] employe of the folding room will be dropped. Of these two are democrats [illegible] the politics of the others is unknown.

A NEW STYLE OF BOAT.

WASHINGTON, June [illegible]—[illegible] invitation of Secretary Whitney to the officers of the navy and others to submit plans to him for the construction of naval steel cruisers, Admiral Porter has for some time past been engaged in planning a vessel which he hopes will prove a new [illegible] She is to be [illegible] feet long, and [illegible] torpedo [illegible] forward or backward with [illegible] and [illegible] carry a heavy armament. It is expected [illegible] great speed.

A REPORT FROM GENERAL AUGUR.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—General Augur has reported to the war department that he has sixteen companies of cavalry and six of infantry at Fort Reno, Indian territory. The last company arrived at the fort to-day. The general apprehends no immediate outbreak of the Cheyenne Indians. They have been informed of the proposed appointment of a commission to investigate the trouble, and express a willingness to await the result.

KANSAS APPEALS FOR PROTECTION.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Senator Ingalls to-day received a telegram from the governor of Kansas saying an invasion by Cheyennes, similar to that of 1878, was apprehended, and that great uneasiness prevails. The western part of Kansas has been rapidly settled up this season, and the new comers are in a very defenseless condition. Governor Martin therefore expressed an earnest desire that the secretary of war [illegible] station troops in the southwestern border [illegible] to guard against any attacks from Indians. Secretary Endicott being out of the city, Senator Ingalls called upon the president with his telegram and was assured that the matter had been the subject of earnest consideration by the president and cabinet, and that active measures had been taken by both the interior and the war departments to prevent [illegible]

[illegible] ACTION.

WASHINGTON, June [illegible]—Naval Paymasters Deering and Barton of the paymaster general's office [illegible] detached from duty and placed on waiting orders. This action was taken because [illegible] during the continuance of the chief of the bureau [illegible] not because the officers named were thought [illegible] connection with the irregularities charged against the head of the division.

[illegible] NEW YORK [illegible]

WASHINGTON, June 26.—It was stated at the [illegible] that a change will be made [illegible] collector of customs at New York [illegible] week. Mr Robertson's term of office expires [illegible] and there is a possibility of [illegible] until the 1st proximo.

WILL REDUCE THE FORCE.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Attorney General Garland says he will reduce the force of examiners in the department of justice considerably, as he finds there is not sufficient work to be done to justify the employment of the entire force.

MEXICO

A BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 26.—The recent and unexpected decrees funding outstanding obligations against the government in a $25,000,000 issue of bonds has had the effect of making the money market tighter than ever. The National bank on Tuesday stopped all discount business, a step that has been generally followed. Brokers' exchanges both foreign and domestic has stiffened in price. The commercial outlook is yet more ominous and it is reported that a number of houses reputed to be in good standing are on the verge of bankruptcy. Mexico is in the lowest depths of poverty. The receipts of the government are not sufficient to meet the estimated expenditures. The executive has authority to give preference to the expenses of actual administration, leaving other less pressing claims in abeyance until such time as they can be liquidated.

Representatives of the National bank of Mexico and the Central and National railways have had an interview with the secretary of the treasury regarding the new $25,000,000 fund[illegible] law. Strong arguments were put forth for a modification of the law. The government, however, assumes a strong attitude and refused to consider this step. It is reported that English capitalists who were about to put up $10,000,000 for the completion of the Mexican National road have withdrawn their aid. This latest step of the government to fund railway subsidies in [illegible] per cent bonds was too much for the British conservatives.

THE MEXICAN BANK LAW TROUBLE.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 26.—A committee composed of the directors of the National bank waited upon the government yesterday in reference to the application of the new law as far as that institution was concerned. The committee was informed that the provisions of the recent decree were applicable to national banks. Representatives including attorneys of the Mexican Central and Mexican National railroads also met to consider the effect of the new decree on those roads and what action was proper in the premises, but no decisive action was taken. The government has sold $4[illegible],000 worth of nickel coin stored at the palace since what is known as the "nickel riot," at its nominal value to the London bank acting as agent. The amount paid was $800,000. The nickel is already on its way to England. It is still believed the government has in reserve some extensive financial scheme that has not been printed.

SPAIN

THE PRIME MINISTER RETURNS.

MADRID, June [illegible]—Senor Canovas del Castillo, prime minister, and Senor Romero y Robledo, minister of the interior, have returned to Madrid from Murcia. They report Murcia in a lamentable condition of misery and terror. They distributed among the sufferers $50,000, including King Alfonso's gift of $5000.

SOUTH AMERICA

THE WRECK OF THE ITALIA.

LIMA, June [illegible] (via Galveston).—El Commercio to-day published a letter from Captain Carteo of the ill fated Italia. He accounts for the wreck by the current which set them in toward land, and says that if the officer on watch, who is supposed to have committed suicide, had lived, more light could have been thrown on the cause of the disaster. Some of those saved were forty nine hours in open boats and were eventually rescued by fishermen. One boat was sucked down by the sinking ship and all its occupants were drowned.

The City of Tokio Likely to Prove a Total Loss—Conflicting Reports About Austria's Attitude Toward Minister Keiley

LONDON, June 26.—The Times, in an editorial article commenting upon the proposed abolition of Irish vice royalty and Dublin castle, protests against the denunciators of the castle as a result of [illegible] but admits that coalition, vice royalty and the question of local self government are [illegible] subjects of discussion. It advocates the presence of royalty instead of vice royalty. A difficulty arises, it continues, as to the character of the central board which it is proposed to place in the castle as the government. If there should be a department of state like the local government board of England it would only be Dublin castle revived.

OFFICIAL RECEPTION.

LONDON, June 26.—Marquis Salisbury held an official reception to-day in the foreign office, for diplomats accredited to the British court. Among the distinguished ambassadors present were Baron De Staal from Russia, Count Von Munster from Germany, Count Nigra from Italy and Musurus Pasha from Turkey.

SYMPATHY WITH WOLSELEY.

LONDON, June 26.—Salisbury has telegraphed [illegible] Wolseley in Egypt that he is in full sympathy with his views regarding the withdrawal of British troops from the Soudan. The marquis adds, however, that the government is unable for various reasons to continue the expedition.

A DENIAL.

LONDON, June 26.—The Post says it is authorized to deny the report that Lord Salisbury telegraphed Lord Wolseley that he was in full sympathy with the latter's views regarding withdrawal from Egypt, but that the government was unable to continue the expedition.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26.—The Journal de St Petersburg, in an editorial, expresses respect and [illegible] for Mr. Gladstone. Referring to the new British cabinet the Journal says: The conservatives have the good sense to consider the necessity of the situation. The Marquis of Salisbury succeeds to the position already taken by Mr. Gladstone. The path to follow is broadly marked by the natural movement of history. The sense of responsibility and the knowledge of Europe possessed by the Marquis of Salisbury will mould his acts according to the [illegible] needs of the time and the respective positions of the several peoples and he will determine the relations between us on these grounds. Russia with respect to her interest and in view of her conciliatory policy regards with calmness the accession of the new ministry.

RUSSIA PREFERS TO BE SILENT.

COLOGNE, June 26.—The London correspondent of the Kolnische Zeitung writes that he has the best authority for the statement that DeStaal, [illegible] ambassador at London, is not instructed to [illegible] explain his recent utterances in the [illegible] concerning Russia. Russia prefers to [illegible] prudent silence.

JAPAN.

[illegible] LIKELY TO PROVE A TOTAL LOSS.

LONDON, June [illegible]—A dispatch from Yokohama says the American steamer City of Tokio from San Francisco, which is ashore at the entrance to the harbor, will probably prove a total loss.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Williams, Dimond & Co., general agents of the Pacific Mail Company at this city, received a dispatch this morning from the company's agent in Yokohama stating that the steamer City of Tokio, which was reported yesterday to be ashore near Yokohama, is aground on Sagami point, twenty two miles below the city. The dispatch says the passengers, crew, mail, and a small part of the cargo have been saved. Every effort was being made to get her off. The steamer cost a million dollars. Fears are expressed [illegible] by those familiar with Yeddo bay that the vessel will be a total loss.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Dispatches received in this city by the Pacific Mail Company in regard to the loss of the steamer City of Tokio state that there is every probability that most of the cargo will be saved. The company's office also claim that their loss will be temporary, and not likely to interfere seriously with its business or its dividend earning capacity.

NEW YORK, June 26.—In reference to the stranding of the City of Tokio, President Houston says that he could form no estimate of the loss to the company until further particulars. But he thought if the steamer were a total loss the loss had been fully discounted by the decline in the price of stock. She was not insured except so far as the company insures its own vessels. The fund for that purpose is now about $120,000. The steamer cost $1,250,000 but could be reproduced for [illegible]

AUSTRIA

A DENIAL OF THE KEILEY STORY.

LONDON, June 26.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent denies the report that Austria has declined to receive Mr. Keiley as American minister. He says that President Cleveland has not asked whether Mr. Keiley would be acceptable to the Austrian government, but it is believed that the president has reconsidered the nomination.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1885.

ASSAULT ON THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW.

A proposition on the part of the democrats to repeal the civil service law, expected as a matter of course all along, has come at last. Congressman Bennett of North Carolina who has just returned to his constituents, excuses himself for failing to secure certain official changes by charging the responsibility on the administration. He announces that next winter he will "attempt to smooth the way to the appointment of democrats by doing his best to repeal the civil service law." This is not the first indication of such a purpose, but it is, we believe, the first open avowal of it. There is little doubt that many democrats in congress will stand with Bennett in his effort, perhaps a majority, and there is still less doubt that the scheme will be approved by the great mass of the democratic party. Civil service reform has, indeed, been a democratic campaign cry for the past few years, but it has never been a sincere or practical principle of the party. It is contrary to all democratic theories, traditions and hopes, and it has never been applied in any state where the party has been in power. The author of the existing national law, a democrat, came into discredit with his party for his course in this matter, and was only taken up again when the necessity of "doing something with him" became a matter of decency. The law was finally adopted by republican votes, and put into effect in its spirit as well as in its letter, by a republican administration.

The spirit of the present democratic administration, elected upon pledges to continue the practical operation of the law and professing, as it does, to respect its principle, has avoided and shirked the performance wherever it has been possible to do so with a show of decency. The dismissal of postal inspectors in this state and elsewhere upon a pretense, and the almost immediate filling of the places thus vacated, by democrats; the dismissal of mint employes at San Francisco upon a pretense of economy when it is absolutely necessary for their places to soon be filled again; the turning out of all employes in certain departments at Washington to whom the civil service rules do not technically apply; the appointment of Beecher's son as a reward for the service of the father—these and many other instances go to show the insincerity and the humbug of an administration which for a time is trying to keep up a show of maintaining its promises. The democratic party as a mass and the democratic administration, find the civil service law a hateful restriction. Both would like to see it done away with. How long will they continue to pretend that it is in line with their wishes? Not long we imagine. Repeal of the law will be demanded this coming session and the only hope for its maintenance is the party which enacted it.

That Mr. Cleveland is beginning to feel his way toward complete harmony with his party (and the only way is a wholesale transfer of patronage) is clearly enough shown by his remark quoted in another column, that he must have a constituency, that he can not be like a man who, halting between two seats, finally sits upon the floor. Nobody with a glimmer of sense has doubted that the end would be the course which this remark suggests. But the civil service law must not be repealed. To take this step backward would disgrace the nation. This much at least must be saved from the wreck and the republican party must save it.

Two weeks ago THE OREGONIAN said of Mr. W. H. Adams: "He is a man of fair ability, of good personal habits, and for all it knows to the contrary, of honorable public and private character." Since then he has put through the council, and, as acting mayor, has signed the great water ordinance, for which he has been criticised by THE OREGONIAN. Now comes the Standard saying that "THE OREGONIAN endorsed him as a man of 'honorable public and private character,'" and was guilty of insincerity in doing so. What it said was that, "for all it knew to the contrary," he was such a man. What has since transpired raises a doubt at least as to the soundness of his judgment on a public matter, as well as to the propriety of his conduct therein. In attempting to make THE OREGONIAN say what it never said, and in not taking account of the circumstances that might properly lead to a change of judgment, the Standard is intentionally disingenuous. However, it doesn't much matter.

Mr. D. C. Ireland, a well known newspaper man, who, twenty years ago, was city editor of THE OREGONIAN, has bought the Yamhill Reporter, of which he takes charge this week. Mr. Ireland was the founder of the Oregon City Enterprise and of the Astorian, both of which he made successful. He has good judgment, and is an indefatigable worker. The Yamhill paper, under his charge, is destined to the same success which he achieved in his other newspaper undertakings.

Yale college has become a sort of go-as-you-please and cowboy institution. Not long ago it greatly lowered its standard of scholarship, and now it has old Tom Hendricks introduced to address it, introduced as "the man who has been twice elected vice president but has held the office only once," and it howls loudly while he delivers a crude harangue, in which there is neither thought, literary fitness nor anything else. Yale degenerates.

The Kentucky principle has been introduced as a social custom at Washington. Ladies when escorted by gentlemen buy their own theater tickets and pay their own car-fare; or if it be a picnic occasion the ladies furnish the solid and the gentlemen the liquid refreshments. When the ladies supply the bread it's a poor crowd of men who can't rustle up the water.

Nothing has happened to mar the prospect for a magnificent wheat harvest. The prevailing cool weather is just what is needed after the rains. The Salem Statesman of yesterday says: "We now hear no expressions of fear concerning rust, and good crops are now nearly as well as assured."

The Providence Journal says truly, that "every time the tories obtain a temporary lease of power in England the country takes a forward step toward democracy."

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Cleveland Leader: There is nothing of the political sneak about ex-Speaker Randall, democrat though he may be.

Senator Sherman predicts that most of the mugwumps will be back in the republican party before 1888 and that the organization will be more closely united than ever.

It would please the democratic Washington Post if the republicans outside of Ohio would stand back and leave the republicans in that state to run their own campaign and so free it from any national significance.

Blue grass ex-Congressman Thomas Robbins, of Kentucky, indicates his attitude by saying: "I have not yet asked this administration for a cursed thing, and, by gad, sah, I don't intend to."

The Charleston News contemplates the dissensions and bitterness engendered in the democratic party by the race after the federal patronage and concludes sagely that "the offices are the weakness of parties."

Philadelphia Times: The Republic desires to know what Postmaster General Vilas is there for, anyhow. On the surface of things it would appear that he is there to keep several western democrats out.

The Mobile Register claims that the lowering of the wool tariff in 1883 destroyed completely the sheep industry in south Alabama and Mississippi, and yet the democratic house of representatives of 1884 refused to restore the duty to a protective basis.

Philadelphia Press: The hungry office seekers who set out to paint the country red as soon as they found that Mr. Cleveland was elected have never finished the job. Their ardor has been perceptibly dampened by the discovery that the president's artistic taste doesn't run in that direction.

The Boston Advertiser, a mugwump organ, reports Cleveland as saying: "I cannot accomplish much without a constituency. That must be the democratic party in the main. It is folly for me to try to stand between the two parties. I should come out like the man who tried to occupy two chairs and ended by sitting on the floor."

Albany Express: We don't want the republican party to enter upon the next presidential race handicapped with a beaten horse. We don't want to fight another campaign as we did the last, on the defensive. We don't want a man who has been a standing candidate for president since 1876, rejected by two national conventions and indorsed by one, only to lead the republican party to defeat for the first time in a quarter of a century. We greatly prefer a new leader, who can make an aggressive and successful fight in 1888. The republican party has scores of men, able and true, who can do this. Give one of them a chance who has never trailed our banner in the dust.

PRESS PITH.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: The Gladstone ministry held their own against the kings of the entire continent; they struck King Alcohol and gave up whipped.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: There is one text of the bible that Missourians believe in and constantly put Cleveland in mind of. It reads, "Ask, and ye shall receive."

Boston Bulletin: A Jersey City lady has taught her canary to alight on her cat's back.—New York Journal. A cat does not require to be taught to alight on the back of a canary.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: The Agricultural Bureau is out of funds, and can't do a thing. We observe, with unfeigned satisfaction, however, that the crops are going forward to maturity as though nothing had happened.

Philadelphia Press: The Cobden Club, of London, is greatly distressed over the depression of industrial interests in America. Still there is no reason why the club should lose any sleep on our account. This country will worry along somehow.

Philadelphia Press: Sam Jones, the southern revivalist, declares that the German is "nothing but hugging set to music." Nothing? That's what we call a great deal. Unless Sam Jones can suggest something for making it still more deliriously delightful, let us on with the mazy dance.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

The membership of the Grand Army of the Republic is 320,000.

We begin to have hope for the south now. A base ball nine has entered the lists of the champions.

Mr. James Russell Lowell will reside with his daughter, Mrs. Burnett, in Southboro, Mass., his home, Elmwood, in Cambridge, being under lease to Mrs. Ole Bull for another year.

Francis Murphy the other day told a volume in a sentence to the Pittsburg strikers. He said: "If you must strike, strike against whisky and bad company." Such a strike as that is always in order.

Tin, in which a successful venture has just been worked on a vast scale, which has commanded the markets of the world and forced up prices without regard to value, is the one metal in which our tariff for twenty years has done nothing to develop our own resources. The result is dependence on a single foreign supply and great fluctuations in price.

Browsing animals are proving as destructive to California forests as they are elsewhere. Herds of sheep and cattle are driven up to the mountains every year to graze, and they devour every green thing, from the foothills to the meadows on the summit of the ranges. When the grass fails the young seedling trees are eaten off, or the bark peeled so that the undergrowth is entirely destroyed.

If Your Lungs are Destroyed

Do not expect that Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will make new ones for you. It can do much, but not impossibilities. If, however, you have not yet reached the last stages of consumption there is hope for you. But do not delay lest you cross the fatal line where help is impossible. The Discovery has arrested the aggravating cough in thousands of consumptives, cured their night sweats and hectic fevers, and restored them to health and happiness.

[illegible] The city [illegible] sewers, and [illegible] Those who have been [illegible] last year [illegible] in regard to the health of the [illegible] opinion that some measures toward the extension of the sewerage system were more urgently needed than an additional water supply. [illegible] of a sewer on Harrison street, from Sixth [illegible] river. It will be [illegible] of a pipe and [illegible] Front street [illegible] to Tenth [illegible] eighteen [illegible] as soon as [illegible] shall ever have satisfactory sewerage. [illegible] Front street [illegible] the [illegible] sewers can empty and with [illegible] Mr. Gear. This will be done [illegible] years. [illegible] the city has [illegible] some [illegible] summers past [illegible] the new works at Palatine Hill is practically inexhaustible, and a strong current can be forced through the sewers with no trouble at all. This is necessary, and it should receive immediate attention.

ALUMNI RECEPTION.—Arrangements have at last been made whereby the class of '85 will be tendered a right royal reception by the alumni association. A final meeting was held Thursday night at the Park school building. The best of good feeling prevails and every one is entering heartily into the work of making the reunion this year a success in every feature. The programme committee has prepared an excellent line of entertainment and promise one or more features hitherto not had at these gatherings. The refreshment committee with a liberal purse, will spread the finest banquet that has met the gaze of any of the old graduates. This latter layout will be made the leading feature of the evening, and special pains have been taken with this part of the entertainment. The affair will be devoted exclusively to the members of graduating class and members of the alumni. Invitations are extended to those connected with the schools in any manner and to the press of the city. Though the reunion takes place before the graduating exercises it will not in any way mar the success of the reception. It is to be a genuine old-time reception and every one is expected to do his or her share in entertaining the guests. A mistaken idea has got about that there would be no dancing. Good music has been engaged for the purpose, and those so inclined can indulge in the "light fantastic" to their hearts' content. Friday evening, July 3, is the time and Masonic hall the place set for the reunion.

NOT TO PAY FOR TERMINAL FACILITIES.—In the U. S. circuit court yesterday Judge Deady rendered a decision in the case of Harrison et al. vs. the O. & C. R. R. Co., in the matter of the petition of R. Koehler, receiver of the road, for instructions in relation to a contract of the O. & C. R. R. Co. with the North Pacific Terminal Co. The different railroad companies whose lines terminate here entered into an agreement with the North Pacific Terminal Company whereby they were to pay a certain amount of money annually as interest on the bonds of the terminal company, and were in return to be furnished with certain terminal facilities. The O. & C. R. R. Co. have paid the money as agreed, but the terminal facilities have not been furnished as was agreed. The receiver petitioned for instructions as to whether under the circumstances he should pay any more money to the terminal company, or not. The court was of opinion that a contract existed between the two companies, and that if the terminal failed to fulfill its contract the O. & C. R. R. Co. had no need to fulfill its agreement. Receiver Koehler was therefore instructed not to pay any more money to the terminal company for the present.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The school board held a regular meeting last evening. A communication from Joseph Beebe, recommending the adoption of the [illegible] in the schools was placed on file. The following claims were read and approved: Insurance, $[illegible]; Sypne & Taylor, $[illegible]; Henrichsen & Greenberg, $5 85; F. E. Beach, 75c; John Dommerberg, $114 85. A resolution asking that rule 111 be so amended as to require pupils to take a full course of studies before being appointed or elected salutarian or valedictorian of the graduating class of the High school was laid on the table. The following applied for positions in the department as teachers: G. Annie Girdner, [illegible] Jewett, Ella G. Niles; placed on file. [illegible] Good rough addressed the board, showing the progress of the work on the new high school. The work, he said, was going on slowly and in the main satisfactory. Some trouble is being had with the [illegible] but the defect is to be remedied. [illegible] is being put in with [illegible] instead of [illegible] as called for in the specifications. Work on the towers of the building is progressing slowly.

REAL ESTATE BROKERS' ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the leading real estate brokers held yesterday afternoon at the office of J. Fred Clark, 17 Stark street, the Real Estate Brokers' Association of the northwest was organized. The officers for the ensuing year, all unanimously elected, are: J. L. Atkinson, president; J. Fred Clark, vice-president; W. H. [illegible], secretary, and [illegible] D. White, treasurer. Under the provisions of the constitution any real estate broker in good standing and having a place of business in Oregon, Washington territory or Idaho may by conforming with the provisions of the constitution and by-laws, become a member of the association. The objects as stated in the constitution are to promote fraternal feeling amongst the members of the guild, and to facilitate sales of properties by the formation of a network of corresponding agencies throughout the northwest. It is anticipated that its effect will be to remove many petty jealousies, to enforce fair dealing, and to give to persons desiring to sell an infinitely wider range of opportunities than could possibly be afforded without the aid of the association.

ONE PHASE OF SLAVERY.—A suit tried in the state circuit court yesterday goes to show that the Chinese are not alone in the custom of buying and selling women for immoral purposes. Emanuel Pichet, a French maquereau brought suit against Pierre Simonardt and Louise Simonard, to recover $40 due on money advanced to bring a young woman here from San Francisco. The details of the affair are not fit for publication, but from the circumstances it appears that the girl brought here was considered as much a slave as any Chinese woman. There are quite a number of these maquereaux in this city and a more villainous, despicable and utterly worthless class of wretches do not disgrace sheol. They ought to be tarred and feathered and run out of town, but as they manage to accumulate some money from the earnings of their victims, they somehow escape punishment. If they had justice they would all be bagged forthwith as they are well known to the police and many others.

ELOPEMENT.—About 11 o'clock last night Policemen Barry and Griffin arrested a man named J. L. Paddock and a woman named Koch, in a lodging house on Washington street, between Fifth and Sixth, on a charge of adultery preferred by Mr. Koch, the husband of the woman. It appears that Koch who resides at Port Ludlow went on a fishing trip some weeks since and while he was away, Paddock, who has been on the Sound for some time persuaded Mrs. Koch to run away with him, taking along her two children. She is an unsophisticated appearing woman, whom Koch married and brought out from Germany some five years since. Paddock is said to be a barber, and looks like a sharper. Mr. Koch came back from fishing sooner than was expected, and finding his home desolate, started in pursuit of the couple. They both, and also the children, passed the night in the city jail. Paddock had about $300 on his person, and was intending to go overland to California with his suddenly acquired family.

FOURTH OF JULY PREPARATIONS.—A meeting of the general committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration was held last night. A committee was appointed to secure horses for the light artillery. One hundred dollars was placed at the disposal of the grand marshal. The committee on fireworks reported that the large pieces were in process of construction. The committee on competitive contests reported that but few companies had so far reported, but that more were expected. On military drill it was decided the exercise should consist of the drill of the company school, except skirmish drill and bayonet exercise. The committee on bands reported the engagement of two bands of twelve pieces each. The committee on printing stated that they have distributed matter in all directions, and everybody was duly apprised of the celebration. Adjourned until Monday evening at 8 sharp.

PAINTING MT. TABOR RED.—At 9 o'clock last evening a brilliant red light of large dimensions was seen blazing on the top of Mt. Tabor. It lasted about two minutes and excited considerable wonderment among those who were not aware of the cause. The unusual spectacle was caused by the burning of a pound of red fire as an experiment for testing the clockwork to be used in illuminating the top of Mt. Hood on the night of July 4. The parties engaged in this scheme have two methods in view for carrying out their plans, and the experiment last evening was made in order to ascertain which of the two was the most feasible. If the weather is propitious there is no doubt that the illumination of Mt. Hood with twenty pounds of red fire will prove a success. This is the latest thing in the way of "paintin' 'er red."

[illegible] The work of discharging the cargo of the Cobean was commenced yesterday. She was packed as full of [illegible] as [illegible] English [illegible] wheat. It was a busy scene at the dock when the rice began to be [illegible] and the customs officers began to assort it into different lots, according to the marks. Chinese merchants strolled around with "samples" in their hands, with which they made critical examination of [illegible] the same as our shippers do with wheat. And there seemed to be as much difference in the rice as there is between valley wheat and Walla Walla wheat. It is one of the curiosities of commerce that we should ship away cargoes of the [illegible] grain to the eastward and then go far to the west and bring cargoes of another kind of grain here.

IN HARD LUCK.—Castillo Irvine, the colored waiter indicted for attempting to steal a sack containing some gravel stones from the pocket of [illegible] Pennington, a butcher, on election day, was arraigned in department No. 2 of the state circuit court yesterday. At his request Judge Stearns allowed him one day to plead. It is the opinion of many that Irvine is more sinned against than sinning. He was around a saloon where a lot of fellows were drinking and was knocked down by one of them, and then he was charged with having conceived the idea of stealing a sack out of Pennington's pocket. He did not steal anything and he was knocked down, and how it is concluded he [illegible] It is a wonder he was not locked for [illegible] He deserves to be, for being in such a dive.

[illegible] Judge [illegible] [illegible] a committee [illegible] that [illegible] his [illegible] for [illegible] Miss [illegible] The [illegible] the east [illegible] [illegible] Walla [illegible] [illegible] or [illegible] [illegible] he [illegible] at [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible]

WASCO COUNTY WHEAT.—Mr. [illegible], road master of the O. R. & N. [illegible] to Mr. H. S. Rowe, [illegible] of the company, a [illegible] barley [illegible] on the [illegible] of the Columbia river, between Grant's and Celilo [illegible] Spanish [illegible] The [illegible] twenty-five bushels [illegible] the barley from thirty-eight to [illegible] bushels. This year over [illegible] acres of grain has been sown in the district mentioned, where heretofore there has [illegible] cultivation. The wheat harvest will [illegible] next week. At Echo, Umatilla county, wheat cutting began yesterday and by the middle of next week harvest will be in full blast in that section.

A HISTORIC LANDING.—The R. R. Thompson which leaves at 10 o'clock this morning for the seaside will stand at old Fort Clatsop, about [illegible] miles southwest of Astoria, and there connect with stages for the seaside house. It will be news to many readers of THE OREGONIAN, including pioneers, to know that this landing is the first spot in Oregon where white men camped. In the fall of 1805 Lewis and Clarke, after they had made their famous exploration, halted there and built a stockade, which was not far from the mouth of the river which bears their name. They remained during the following winter. The site of the fort can still be distinguished by trenches.

EXCHANGE OF COURTESIES.—The employes of the Standard office were entertained last evening at the residence of their late employer, A. Noltner, on North Seventh street. He has always been a kind man to his employes, and the most friendly relations exist between them. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present. A handsome watch charm was presented to Mr. Noltner as a token of the kindly feelings entertained toward him by those who have been connected with the Standard while under his management.

THE MOSCOW BRANCH.—Elijah Smith, president of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, when he returned from Colfax, was asked by a gentleman interested what he thought of building the Moscow branch. Mr. Smith replied: "It ought to be built at once." Answering a question as to the probability of the branch being built this season, he said that if it were possible to raise the funds the work would go on. He thought the chances were good for building the line this year.

TURNERS' ELECTION.—The Portland Social Turn Verein elected the following officers for the [illegible] six months: President, R. Schneider; vice president, [illegible]; recording secretary, F. Saron; financial secretary, Ad. Lobston; treasurer, [illegible]; first leader, Ad. Lenz; second leader, A. Goodrich; first warden, J. Piebsch; second warden, [illegible]; librarian, J. Kowall; stage manager, O. Boenicke. It was resolved that the society join the North American Turners' Union.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL PORTLAND BOY.—A dispatch was received yesterday afternoon by [illegible] H. Bories from his eldest son, Emil Bories, who has been studying medicine in the east for the past two years, announcing the successful completion of his labors by graduation at the Farmington [illegible] medical institute. He passed a most satisfactory examination. He has shown what a Webfoot boy of brains and energy can accomplish.

KILLED BY A BASEBALL.—During the progress of a game of baseball at Forest Grove on Monday last, Willie A. Bednek, aged 17, was struck on the [illegible] with the ball [illegible] yesterday [illegible] o'clock. Young Bednek [illegible] the ball [illegible] to produce [illegible] inflammation of the brain.

TO ASTORIA.—Parties desiring to [illegible] at Astoria or on the beach, and not caring to [illegible] Saturdays, should remember that the Lurline will leave the foot of Alder street to-night at 8 o'clock. Returning will leave Astoria at [illegible] P. M. Sundays. Those availing themselves of this opportunity will avoid a fatiguing journey during the heat of the day, and will arrive at Astoria refreshed by a good night's rest.

ONE TRUE BILL, THREE OTHERWISE.—The grand jury returned a true bill in the case of Harry Hankins, charged with assault with intent to kill, on his wife. They returned not a true bill in the following cases: Charles Kahn, charged with perjury; Pat. Holland and wife, charged with willful destruction of property; Mike McMahon and Charles Siefert, assault with a dangerous weapon.

REMOVE THE MOSS.—Chief Engineer J. Morgan of the fire department has just issued the following order: "To the owners and occupants of buildings—Notice is hereby given that section 21 of ordinance No. 4,30 will be strictly enforced from and after this date." The section provides for the removal of all accumulated moss from roofs of buildings.

ART CLASSES.—Mrs. C. L. Henderson, benefiting by three years' experience of foreign travel, purposes in the autumn to institute art classes as a preparatory course for an intelligent European tour, in its art, history and literature, combined with a knowledge of its profitable and seasonable expenditure.

LAST SERMON.—Dr. P. R. Marvin will preach for the last time, before returning to the east, Sunday evening, his subject being "The Church." In the morning the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered. It is understood that a farewell reception will be tendered the doctor early in the week.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.—Charles Hawes, whose leg was crushed at Albina Thursday afternoon, died at St. Vincent's hospital at 7 o'clock last night. He never reacted from the shock, and gradually sank to his endless sleep. The body will be forwarded from Albina to-morrow.

EARLIER ARRIVAL OF FREIGHT.—Commencing on Monday, June 29, freight trains on the east side division of the O. & C. R. R. will arrive in East Portland at 3 P. M., instead as now at 5:10 P. M. All perishable freights will be delivered same day by 4 P. M.

CUPS RECEIVED.—In the window of Henrichsen & Greenberg are five silver cups designed as prizes for yachting, target shooting, base ball, horse racing and sculling on the fourth. The cups were sent up by Mr. Greenburg, who is now in San Francisco.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The barge State of Oregon, with good music and fine floor for dancing, will leave the foot of Taylor street at 8 o'clock this evening, in tow of the steamer Portland, for Milwaukie, remaining there one hour.

RECITATION.—Miss Laura Dainty will give a recitation for the children at the matinee at New Market this afternoon, during the performance of "A Mountain Pink."

THE STAGE.

NEW MARKET THEATRE.—Miss Laura Dainty in her charming impersonation of Sincerity Weeks in "A Mountain Pink" has grown in popular favor from her first appearance on Monday night. Nothing could be more true to nature, more full of simplicity and genuine pathos than her delineation of the untutored, noble-hearted child of the mountains. There is a freshness, a breath of novelty about her acting that cannot fail to win applause. Between the third and fourth acts last evening Miss Dainty recited two selections in a most inimitable manner, particularly Bret Harte's "Bill Mason." We do not remember to have ever heard anything given with more earnestness and expression than she threw into her rendering of this poem. The company is above the average, Messrs. Hynson, Rose and Wilson being particularly good. Miss Neddie Crego sustained the widely diverse parts of Belle Trafton and Samanthy Weeks most admirably, while Miss Midgely as Nondas was veritable "eggerly." At the matinee to-day, and this evening, "A Mountain Pink" will be given for the last times.

THE CASINO.—Miss Lester's benefit last evening was a splendid success both as to audience and performance. The talented beneficiare received a most hearty and prolonged welcome on her appearance in the last act of the "Bohemian Girl." She was the recipient of the most beautiful floral tributes which have been yet presented at the Casino. The prison scene from "Trovatore" gave Miss Lester an opportunity to display her brilliant powers as a prima donna, in fact, and won her a [illegible] call before the curtain. The enthusiasm, however, would not be calmed down till Mr. Gates, who, as Manrico, sang "Ah! Che la Morte" superbly, and Mr. Stevens, as Count di Luna, had also responded to the curtain call. The performance concluded with the last act of "Satanella." The opera will be given to-night and to-morrow night, and the benefit to Mr. Kinross on Monday night will close the present season.

LIFE INSURANCE FACTS.

Largest Old Line Life Insurance Company issued in 1884 $19,000,000.

Next largest Old Line Company issued in same year $17,000,000.

The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association issued in 1884 the astonishing volume of $35,[illegible] and in 1885, up to June [illegible], has issued $[illegible]

In New York in 1884 this association issued more insurance by $[illegible] than was issued by five-sixths of all the New York companies combined, while expenses of management alone of these companies, although securing more than one million less business, were eighteen times as great as the entire expenses of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life, and more than seven times greater than all its total expenditures, including death claims paid.

Let the people call in their witnesses and examine them and cross-examine them, and render their own verdict as to why this organization thrives so well where it is best known.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

Steps Taken Last Night for a Permanent Organization.

Address by Mr. Edmund T. Dooley of San Francisco Upon the Work in California. His Opinion of Our Penal Institutions.

Last evening a meeting of citizens was held in the [illegible] chamber to take preliminary steps toward organizing a Children's Aid Society. There was a representative attendance of ladies and gentlemen. Hon. H. W. Corbett was chosen chairman, and after stating the object of the meeting, introduced Mr. Edmund T. Dooley, superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of San Francisco, who had been invited to address the meeting. Mr. Dooley said that in offering testimony on the work in which he was engaged, he felt that he could present nothing better than a part of the paper which he read in this city, on the occasion of a former visit, last year. He started out with the proposition, laying aside the moral aspect, that as a matter of political economy it paid better to spend a few dollars to prevent crime than a great sum to punish it. This theme he elaborated with clear argument. He told in every day language the experience his society had with what were considered incorrigible boys and girls, and the good which had come from home influence. He declared the industrial schools and reform schools of California an unqualified failure. It was a matter of history that a very large percentage of those who passed through these institutions became inmates of the penitentiaries.

Referring to the Oregon state penitentiary, which he visited, Mr. Dooley said that he had never seen one so badly conducted in all his life. There were practiced daily by the inmates the vilest immoralities conceivable, any one of which ought to be punished with death. They sleep in places worse than kennels, so close and fusty that he would not allow his dog to remain in one over night. They have not half the breathing space allowed to United States soldiers, and these live in such close quarters that [illegible] per cent. of the deaths in the army are attributable to the want of fresh air. There is not the first suggestion of moral influence or cleanliness about the place. There is no classification of prisoners, the convicts ranging in age from 15 to 80 years, being indiscriminately herded together, and it was no wonder that men came out worse than when they went in.

Referring to the Multnomah county jail Mr. Dooley said: The air capacity of the cells in which sixty persons slept last night and the two corridors on which they face (deducting the air displaced by actual number of bunks and their bedding) and the average number of prisoners, viz. [illegible], is [illegible] cubic feet. This would give to each of forty-five inmates [illegible] feet; to each of sixty inmates, [illegible] feet. In the crowded barracks of the English soldiery, the allowance is 600 feet to each man.

And this with hardly a suggestion of proper ventilation, without sewage, without sunshine, with[out] privacy, without classification, a necessarily indiscriminate herding of all ages, from the neglected child of 10 or 11 (sometimes younger), to the gray-bearded reprobate of 60 and older, the vagrant, the thief, the sot, the burglar, the wife beater, the lunatic, the murderer. It is no fault of the officers in charge, and I am certain the jailer does the best he can under the circumstances. A large proportion of the prisoners are recommitted of the most vicious character; nearly all the men are of [illegible] propensities and practices; some sent up for ten days, some for thirty days, others for three months, six months and one year, all idle, absolutely without a possible chance for work or even proper exercise; busy, busy, busy, hard at work [illegible] at the devil's work, [illegible] indeed in [illegible] the science of [illegible] which the community compels them to pursue, busy in preparing to ply the arts by which they repay the public for its stupid and culpable treatment of them.

The chairman thanked Mr. Dooley for his able and instructive address.

STEPS TOWARD PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Mr. T. L. Eliot submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this meeting has listened with deep interest to the statement of methods and of experience in saving delinquent children, presented by Mr. Edmund T. Dooley of San Francisco, together with his views and advice as to the condition of the penal institutions of Oregon, and the duty of the community towards children who are in danger of becoming a public disgrace and charge.

[illegible] That it is our conviction that an organization of citizens of Portland and the state at large, should be immediately entered into to be known as the "Children's Aid Society," with the general purposes and methods of temporary care, and placing out of children in homes followed up with efficient guardianship, as now successfully done by the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of San Francisco and elsewhere in the east.

3. That the prime requisite of success in this work is a proper superintendent, and the first effort of the executive board should be to obtain such a superintendent—as advising strenuously the appointment of any one who is not by character and experience and proper qualities of head and heart equipped for this peculiar trust.

4. That we invite the following named citizens, or a majority of them, to meet within one week of this date at a time and place to be designated by the first three named, for the purpose of definitely organizing a Children's Aid Society, with the objects and responsibilities as above:

W S Ladd	H W Corbett
W B Gilbert	E P Thompson
C H Hawkins	P F Keene
I F Powers	C F Sutton
F K Arnold	Arthur E Davis
P F Beach	Wm Wadhams
A M Smith	C W Burrage

Samuel A Moreland	H L Pittock
J M Gearin	Miss H F Spalding
August Goldsmith	H W Scott
S J Barber	Mrs H Thielsen
S B Pettingill	J B Congle
His Excellency Governor Z F Moody.

On motion of S. Harris, T. L. Eliot was, by a unanimous vote, added to the committee. Mr. Eliot promised every spare moment at his command to aid in the work, but asked to be excused from the committee. This the meeting would not grant. Adjourned.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Government bonds were quiet and a shade lower [illegible] 4½s and steady for others. Stocks have been more quiet to-day [illegible] occurring in the forenoon when there was considerable trading in Pacific Mail, Grangers, Vanderbilts, Union Pacific, Lackawanna, Jersey Central and Louisville & Nashville. At the opening the market was weak and in many cases the lowest prices of the day were made before 11 o'clock. This was followed by a reaction and the market continued strong until [illegible] at which time the highest prices in [illegible] were reached. In the last hour the market was again weak, Union Pacific losing all previous gains and something more. The market closed barely steady and irregular, but everything on the list is down ⅛ to ⅝ per cent except Pacific Mail, which shows a loss of 1⅛.

The bears have been heavy sellers of Pacific Mail during most of the day, but there [illegible] appeared also some good buying by friends of the company and others who have faith in the property. It is generally understood to-day that the City of Tokio is a total loss. Officers of the company state that they have enough steamers, however, to do the business offering without the City of Tokio, and it is understood that a new steamer will be ordered very soon. It is officially stated that the company's earnings for the current quarter are at the rate of 10 per cent per annum. The City of Sydney, of the Australia line, which is ready for immediate service, has been ordered to take the place of the City of Tokio in case the latter is totally destroyed.

ADVENTISTS CAMPMEETING

The usual programme was followed yesterday at the Adventist campground. At 9 A M, a meeting of the North Pacific conference was held at which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Elder [illegible]; secretary, H W Reed; treasurer, O Dickins; executive committee, Elders C L Boyd, F D Starr, William Potter.

A resolution was adopted to encourage all who design to labor in any capacity in the conference to attend the denominational college at Healdsburg, Cal. This college, although founded only three years ago, is now almost self-sustaining, an unprecedented thing among such institutions. Besides [illegible] it has a theological department and a department for the special [illegible] missionary workers. The denomination has [illegible] college at South Lancaster, Mass, and one at Battle Creek, Mich. During the last year [illegible] represented at Healdsburg [illegible] Oregon and Washington territory.

The [illegible] service at 10 30 A M was made interesting [illegible] constitutes [illegible] was that [illegible] Christian [illegible] in other words literally [illegible] to the devil. It was stated that many who think they have committed the unpardonable sin have not rejected the favor of God but simply do not understand its infinite depth.

The sermon in the afternoon by Elder Fulton, lately from Minnesota, on the subject of "Walking in the Light," drew a large crowd of interested hearers despite the heat.

Just before sunset the campers assembled in the pavilion for prayers at the beginning of the sabbath, the Adventists believing that the fourth commandment should be literally obeyed. The seventh day is strictly observed; no work being done from Friday at sunset till the same time on Saturday. There will be Sabbath school at 9 A M and preaching at 10 30 A M, and 2 30 and 7 30 P M.

STATE CONVENTION W C T U.

THIRD DAY.

[illegible] meeting was conducted by Mrs [illegible] [illegible] read and commented upon [illegible] specially [illegible] and salvation [illegible] The session was one of great [illegible]

The [illegible] session opened at [illegible] Mr H [illegible] Hines president in the chair. Mrs [illegible] the corresponding secretary [illegible]

[illegible] Mrs [illegible] of Corvallis.

It was voted that the [illegible] from Oregon City [illegible] corresponding secretary.

[illegible] Mrs I F Blaine, the treasurer [illegible] report of Mrs H K Hines, president.

Mrs [illegible], the president of the Portland [illegible] submitted the report on The Plan of W [illegible] on the table until afternoon.

The ballot for president was taken with the following result: Mrs A R Riggs [illegible], Mrs H K Hines 13. It was clearly evident that the convention felt that the work and anxieties of the [illegible] were too much to [illegible] upon the justly beloved and very efficient president for another year [illegible] feeble health [illegible] so great was the desire for the benefit of [illegible] that [illegible] introduced Mrs Riggs as the new president.

Mrs [illegible] was elected recording secretary, Miss Carrie Ross assistant, Mrs [illegible] corresponding secretary, Mrs Blaine treasurer. Adjourned till [illegible]

A rising vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring president Mrs H K Hines.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Devotional exercises by Mrs Sarah M Kerr.

Mrs Riggs most feelingly alluded to the remarkable manner in which God had sustained Mrs Hines during her two years presidency [illegible] Mrs Riggs [illegible] was only the [illegible] health of Mrs Hines that prevented them from voting for her as president. [illegible] Mrs Riggs begged the acceptance of her resignation, pledging herself to help Mrs Hines in her arduous labors.

Mrs Hines most touchingly protested [illegible] but the convention would not be put off and elected her by a unanimous rising vote. [illegible] and voting too. Mrs Riggs said that it was a W C T U custom when any received any special good, to sing the doxology. The audience rose and sang it as well as they could control their feelings. Mrs Cornelius Taylor, superintendent of the Flower mission, read a most beautiful report [illegible] instances of the gratitude of young and old in hospital and jail to whom they had presented flowers. She declared the flower mission [illegible] a blessing and success. [illegible] requested the report for publication in the Pacific Advocate.

Prayer being called for, Mrs Stubbs led.

The committee generally indorsed the lecture of Mrs Owens-Adair on the necessity of instruction [illegible] children regarding [illegible] and narcotics and recommended its publication under the auspices of the state W C T U. Adopted.

Corvallis was selected as the next place of meeting, the first week in September. Report [illegible] committee read and adopted. The following presidents of districts, who will also be vice presidents of the state organization, were elected: Mrs A R Riggs 1st district, Mrs S [illegible] 2d district, Mrs M F Edwards 3d district, Mrs O W [illegible] 4th district, Mrs Hayes 5th district, Mrs W H Smick 6th district.

For state superintendents were elected: Mrs Hoxter, Forest Grove, Sunday school work; Mrs Nora Williams, Corvallis, conference with religious bodies; Mrs Galbraith, Lafayette, heredity and hygiene; Dr Owens-Adair, evangelistic work; Mrs Stubbs, Portland, unfermented wine at the Lord's table; Mrs Bont, Portland, young woman's work; Mrs Henrietta Brown, Albany, fairs and public gatherings; Mrs Shipley, Oswego, [illegible]; Mrs O W Lucas, Pendleton, juvenile work; Mrs Whittaker, Independence, tobacco habit; Mrs Addition, Corvallis, capital and labor; Mrs Bosworth, Forest Grove, legislation and petitions; Mrs W W Parker, Astoria, temperance literature; Mrs Driggs, Oregon City, Sabbath desecration; Mrs [illegible], Jacksonville [illegible]; Miss Lizzie Webb, Portland. The [illegible] resolutions recommended [illegible]

[illegible] Portland for hospitality; Portland press for gratuitous notices and other favors; O & C R R for reduction of fares; speakers and singers for their services; thanking God and taking courage for signs of progress in prohibition in Maine, Kansas and Iowa and other states fast advancing; to work for constitutional prohibition, the advantages of local option in many places, the [illegible] growth of a political party organized for the special purpose of securing state and national prohibition, and that has adopted the motto "For God and Home and Native Land," and has inscribed on its banner [illegible] that no political party [illegible]

We [illegible] the liquor traffic [illegible] favor of [illegible] penalties [illegible] period the next Oregon legislature will pass [illegible] against adulterated food and drink. A number of bills were [illegible]

The following additional delegates were [illegible] Oregon City, Mrs [illegible]; Mrs Kate Mendenhall [illegible]; Portland, Miss Edith [illegible], Albany, Y W C T U; Mrs S A Howell [illegible]; Mrs [illegible] Wilson, Halsey; Mrs Nora Williams, Corvallis; Ella H [illegible], Lafayette.

The following were presented [illegible] state officers: Mrs H K Hines president, Mrs May C Cartwright secretary, Mrs I F Blaine treasurer, Mrs A R Riggs, Mrs M F Edwards vice presidents, Mrs Dr Owens-Adair, Mrs Stubbs, Mrs Shipley, Mrs Addition, Corvallis, Mrs Bosworth, state superintendent.

It was decided to pay the expenses of state president to next national convention at Philadelphia.

Special reference should have been made yesterday to Mrs Stubbs' deeply interesting and profitable report on evangelistic work.

Adjourned till [illegible]

The Band of Hope march, dialogues, recitations and songs, the superb singing of Mrs Wetzell and three of her pupils, the interesting addresses of Elder I W [illegible] and Chaplain Stubbs, a $19 10 collection and an overflowing house made the meeting at the Presbyterian church a great success.

It is expected that Rev Thos M Gunn of Joliet, Ill, will deliver a lecture next Monday under the auspices of the Portland W C T U. Its due notice will be given.

THE WATER QUESTION

PORTLAND, June 26.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The [illegible] of [illegible] William H. Adams after the part taken by him in pressing the Morey water ordinance through isn't worth writing a letter about. The "well respected" whisky conduitor with him in passing the fraud was spending the greater portion of the interval between the two last council meetings in denouncing the action of the ring thieves, as he termed them, whom he strongly insinuated had been bought to vote for the Morey scheme; but his protestation that the Portland Water Company couldn't buy him, when he voted for the Morey ordinance, is full of suggestion that some one else might try. It is a little significant too that Councilman Adams continues to declare that the Crystal Springs Water Company had no money; but he knew the Morey company had. Well, perhaps the C S W Co are keeping theirs to build water works with. The street is ringing with the charge that there was a bargain entered into and it accounts for the unseemly haste of the ring in rushing it through. It would take stronger declarations than any one who voted for it can make to change public opinion in that respect. And its judgment is usually about right.
